FOUR SAILORS OF TENNESSEE DEAD AND TWO WILL DIE

Seven Members of Cruiser's Crew Are Seriously Injured
as Result of Explosion.

Steam Tube Bursts With Terrible Effect at Sea.

OFFICIAL REPORT RECEIVED

Washington, June 5.—The navy department has received Admiral Seligson's report of the accident to the warship Tennessee near San Pedro yesterday. It announces four dead and two fatally and seven seriously hurt. A four-inch boiler tube burst. The injured were taken to a Los Angeles hospital today.

The Accident.
Los Angeles, June 6.—Four men were killed and ten injured on board the armored cruiser Tennessee at sea when a boiler tube broke, hurling fragments of iron about the engine room and filling it with scalding steam. The accident happened an hour after the cruiser left Santa Barbara on her way, with six other vessels of the Pacific fleet to Los Angeles and other ports.

The cruiser was steaming at high speed when the explosion occurred. The Tennessee is Admiral Seligson's flagship, commanding the second division of the Pacific fleet.

The Dead and Injured.
The following list of dead and injured was received by wireless station:

The dead: George Wood, Scranton, Pa.; E. C. Rogers, Woodlawn, Ala.; A. Reingold, Germany; George W. Meek, Skidmore, Kan. The fatally injured are: S. S. Tomatis, Norfolk, Va., and E. S. Maxfield, of Chester county, Pa. The seriously injured are: E. J. Burns, New York; Walter S. Burns, Brooklyn; J. P. A. Carroll, Hartford, Conn. The slightly injured are: R. W. Watson, East St. Louis; R. E. Rutledge, Athens, Pa.; G. M. Corns, Ironton, Ohio; A. Hayes, Brooklyn, N. Y.; H. Fitzpatrick, Brooklyn.

235 Pounds of Steam.
Seligson had ordered the cruiser to full speed, and the Tennessee had just concluded a series of evolutions and started straightway at a speed of between 18 and 19 knots. The admiral in the engine room had just taken note that the dial recorded a steam pressure of 235 pounds when the explosion occurred. Less than ten minutes earlier the tubes had stood a pressure of 265 pounds.

There was no wreckage, but the explosion was described by the survivors as frightful.

So great was the blast of soot and steam that every man in the engine room was blackened from head to foot while those closest to the break were literally cooked alive.

A blast of white steam from the ventilators told those on deck of the accident, and Lieutenant Commander Robinson, navigator, instantly sounded a general alarm, and twenty lines of hose were dropped for instant use in case of fire.

Within the doomed fire room, number three, amidships on the starboard side, which is one of the sixteen enclosed fire compartments, the surviving men were fighting for life.

Reinhold and Meek were stricken dead at their posts.

Admiral's Narrow Escape.

Rogers and Wood crawled or were dragged into the adjoining fire room, No. 11, and died almost immediately. The surviving seamen, all of whom received some injuries, acted with the greatest heroism in hiding their unfortunate mates. Rear Admiral Seligson escaped death or serious injury in the fire pit by a mere moment's time. He had left the room where the explosion occurred not fifty seconds before the fatal blast. The admiral stood in the engine room adjoining the fire room with Chief Engineer Robertson and Captain Howard. His first intimation of the tragedy was as he mounted the ladder and a half naked fireman leaped past him suffering from severe scalds.

Undergoing Inspection.
The ship was undergoing inspection by the commander of the second division and had been under way over two hours, the engines hollers and all working machinery working perfectly, fully equal to the acceptance trial.

The Tennessee was the flagship of the second division of the Pacific fleet and left Santa Barbara at 10 o'clock in the morning with the other cruisers in her wake, on the semi-annual official speed trial provided for by the naval regulations.

The Paducah Athletic club baseball team will go to La Center tomorrow and play the La Center team. Dunbar and Harbour will be the battery for Paducah.

Taft Delegates Winning Before National Republican Committee in Contest For Convention Seats

Hitchcock Says Taft Will be Nominated by Acclamation, While Allies May Carry Up Contest.

Chicago, June 6.—Although the national committee seated Taft delegates of Alabama and Arkansas, the delegates are preparing to fight other contests hard and will carry the contests to the credentials committee. They say Taft men cannot pack it and the decision will be different. If necessary they will carry the fight to the convention floor. Congressman Burke, leader of the anti-Taft faction, intends to let the country know the star chamber methods of the national committee.

Taft men are jubilant and say they control the national committee three to one. Frank Hitchcock claims that Taft will be nominated by acclamation. The Florida contest commenced today. Delegates at large in two districts are involved. J. N. Stripling, the anti-Taft leader, declared that only 15 men attended the Taft convention and all of them are trying to dominate the state.

The national committee seated six Taft delegates from Florida. Another attempt to oust Hitchcock from the committee failed.

Taft Men Win.
Without roll call the Republican national committee decided the contests from Alabama and Arkansas, involving twenty-four seats in the Republican national convention in favor of the delegates instructed for Taft. The victory for the Taft forces was sweeping, not even a division being required to determine the will of the committee. The Alabama contests, affecting four delegates at large and two delegates from each congressional district, twenty-two in all, were first taken up.

The Alabama cases, by agreement were consolidated and two hours given each side. It was regarded as the most important of all contests, because of the fact that twenty-two delegates were involved, and it was first in the list of states that will be called in the convention when the nominations are being made. The candidate securing the delegation from Alabama is sure to be the first placed in nomination, because the state having no candidate of its own, always yields to that state presenting the candidate favored by Alabama.

After listening to the arguments of both sides the committee went into executive session.

All except the members of the national committee were excluded from the room at 1:15 p. m., and a few minutes later it was learned that the Taft delegates had been seated. There was no demand for a roll call, and on a viva voce expression it is said that only Scott, of Alabama, the anti-Taft man, voted for the seating of the delegates chosen by his faction. The Arkansas contests, involving

GAMBLING AGAIN.

While playfully riding a bull yesterday afternoon, Willard Carter, a butcher, was thrown to the ground and his right arm painfully bruised. At first it was thought his arm was broken, but it was only badly skinned and bruised.

Two delegates from the Fifth congressional district, was then taken up. Only half an hour was devoted to it and the committee voted without a dissenting voice to seat the delegates instructed for Taft.

A meeting was held in the room of Senator Hemenway, of Indiana, at the Auditorium Annex, which was attended by representatives of Knox, Fairbanks and Cannon.

A statement was prepared which says in effect: "Contests between Republicans should be considered and decided by those regularly and properly chosen for that purpose, and by them only when they can honestly consider the merits of each case in a judicial frame of mind."

Has Yerkes' Proxy.

Owensboro, Ky., June 6.—Col. J. W. McCulloch, of Owensboro, left for Chicago today bearing the proxy of National Committee member John W. Yerkes, of Kentucky. Mr. Yerkes has never fully recovered from the effects of a sprained ankle he sustained in Washington. Mr. McCulloch will represent Mr. Yerkes on the national committee, which will hear the various contests. Incidentally Mr. McCulloch will have charge of the distribution of the tickets for the Kentucky, and it is certain that Fairbanks' friends will be taken care of.

HOSPITAL SHOOK AND SURGEON CUT IN WRONG PLACE

Indianapolis, June 6.—The gas pumping station, adjacent to St. Vincent's hospital, blew up this morning. Patients were thrown from their beds and many seriously injured. A surgeon, while operating, cut a patient badly. Ruins are being searched for bodies. The whole town was shaken.

MURRAY, BENTON AND EDDYVILLE GET MORE TROOPS

Louisville, June 6.—(Special.)—County Attorney Krone, of Lyon county, is here on his way home from Frankfort, where he discussed the situation with the governor. He says the condition is serious in Lyon county.

Hartford, Ky., June 6.—(Special.)—Forty-four men of the Hartford company will leave tomorrow for Murray, Birmingham, Benton and Eddyville.

scores of houses are washed away with the occupants, who later climbed to the roofs and were rescued today. The lighting plant and street car power houses are flooded.

Kansas Tornado.
Chester, Kan., June 6.—A tornado wrought heavy damage in this section. It formed near Scandia and sucked the water and sand from the Republican river and dropped it on the town. Houses and barns were blown down. At Geneva, the house of John Shipley was demolished, his daughters and a servant were killed. The storm was headed for Republic City. Wires are down and it is feared there was a heavy loss.

Some uncertainty still exists in regard to some of the races, but today's decision will end in a short time. County Judge R. T. Lightfoot has not definitely decided whether he will run again, nor has County Attorney Alben Barkley.

CITY AND COUNTY COMMITTEES CALL EARLY PRIMARIES

Little Open Opposition to Program of Leaders of Party Shown at Meeting.

City Candidates Will be Named Next August.

CAMPAIGN STARTS AT ONCE

City and county Democratic committees met this morning at 10:20 o'clock at the city hall and decided to hold primary elections to nominate candidates for the various offices to be filled next November and a year from next November. The city primary to nominate judge, treasurer, councilmen, aldermen and school trustees, will be held August 6. Nominations of candidates for county officers will be made in a county primary to be held on the presidential election day, November 3.

J. M. Lang, Gus Rogers and W. A. Berry were appointed a committee to arrange the details of the primaries. The members of the committees present this morning were unanimous for a primary instead of a convention. Some of the candidates desire that the county primary be held next summer, but they were so largely in the minority that they did not even express their convictions. The city Democratic committee was first called to order by Chairman W. A. Berry, and after a delay a quorum was secured. The committee members present were: H. J. Wilson, J. J. Lally, Henry Hiderman, Harry Rindolph, J. M. Lang, Gus Rogers, W. J. Gilbert, Charles Smedley and Ed Baker.

Objections to a primary election on account of the expense were met by offers of six precinct committees to hold the primary in their precincts, free of charge to the candidates. The primary will cost $300. Volunteer officers for the voting places will be secured to lighten the expense. It was decided also to hold both primaries under the state law, which will make it as valid as an election.

County Committee.

Chairman Berry then adjourned the city committee and called the county committee to order. As there are six vacancies on the county committee, which normally has 35 members, 15 members were a quorum and a meeting was possible. In addition to the city committee members present, six county committee members were present, as follows: Henry Derrington, Florence precinct; Morton Adeock, Lang school precinct; O. W. Rawlinson, Hildland precinct; William Purdon, New Hope precinct; Jim Segenfelder and George Nalty.

Opposition to the county primary a year in advance of the election was not voiced in the committee meeting. J. M. Lang's motion for the November primary was unanimously carried. But certain candidates, who would not speak out in meeting, expressed themselves privately.

Mothers, they say, are enthusiastically for the early primary. They want it then because the campaign will begin right and they will begin to "strike" the various candidates for small "loans." The mothers and other election leeches have been especially harassing even before it was definitely decided to hold an early primary, as the hard times have made them both numerous and persistent. Now they will eat, drink and board off of the various candidates all summer and fall.

One argument in favor of the early primary, is that the campaign can be made in summer weather, whereas if the primary should be held next spring the candidates would have to travel through the country in winter weather when the roads are impassable. Judge William Reed, who will be renominated without opposition for circuit judge, favored the early primary, as did County Attorney Alben Barkley and a large majority of the candidates.

Some uncertainty still exists in regard to some of the races, but today's decision will end in a short time. County Judge R. T. Lightfoot has not definitely decided whether he will run again, nor has County Attorney Alben Barkley.

Democracy of Kentucky Choosing Delegates to State Convention-- The Result in McCracken County

Called to Order in Court House
This Afternoon at 2 O'clock
by County Chairman W. A.
Berry.

William J. Bryan will be voted for first, last and all the time by McCracken county's 14 delegates to the state Democratic convention next Thursday at Lexington, following instructions given to them in the county convention at the court house this afternoon. Four minutes only were required for the convention to do its work. There were only 90 men present and aside from the vote to instruct the delegates for Bryan, there was no enthusiasm.

Subject to modification, the list of delegates who will go to the state convention is as follows: W. A. Berry, J. S. Ross, W. V. Eaton, J. D. McQuot, Gus Rogers, Alben W. Barkley, C. W. Emery, C. C. Grassham, J. C. Flournoy, C. K. Wheeler, Baxter Kirkendahl, O. W. Rawlinson and Jim Nichols, the last three of the county.

In the resolutions introduced by J. S. Ross, McCracken county delegates were instructed to work for a state delegation to the Denver convention, that will vote as a unit for Bryan, throughout the national convention. Also they were instructed to vote as a unit on all questions that arise in the state convention. This is significant in view of the undoubted fight that will come there between Beckham and his enemies.

Chairman W. A. Berry, of the county Democratic committee, called the convention to order at 2 o'clock. On motion of J. S. Ross he was made permanent chairman and Gus Rogers permanent secretary. No instructions were given for state central committee though it is reliably reported that Chairman Berry himself will get the county's vote in this race.

How McCracken county will stand toward Beckham in the state convention is not apparent on the surface, but quiet work is going on, it is said, to put the ex-governor down and out for all time.

Graves for Beckham.

Mayfield, Ky., June 6. (Special.)—Graves county instructed for Bryan, for Crossland for district central committee, and Gus Thomas for delegate to Denver. Chairman Crossland believed to be a Beckham man, will name the 25 delegates.

Fulton for Beckham.

Hickman, Ky., June 6. (Special.)—Fulton county 8 delegates are instructed for Bryan, and they favor Beckham.

Caldwell County.

Princeton, Ky., June 6. (Special.)—Caldwell county Democrats instructed their six delegates for Bryan, Marshall for Beckham.

Benton, Ky., June 6.—(Special.)

Phil Abbott Will Recover.

Springfield, Ill., June 6.—(Special.)—Phil J. Abbott, who tried to commit suicide here last night by drinking a concoction of poison, which he mixed in Pat Allen's saloon, is somewhat improved today at noon at St. John's hospital and it is reported that he will live. Abbott entered Allen's saloon at 9 o'clock last night and called for a glass of beer. He ordered something in the glass and drank it. The intervention of a bystander kept him from getting too much poison. He was taken to a police station and later to the hospital. On his person was found a note, stating that Secretary of States James A. Rose knew him. Mr. Rose was called to the station and helped care for him. Letters addressed to his wife and mother were also found. It is reported here that, while he defaulted in the Paducah bank, his family has straightened the matter up.

SANFORD HALL IS WAITING IN CITY TILL COURT TIME

Sanford Hall, the confessed night rider, who will be used as a witness against the parties indicted for participation in the Dyersburg raid when Henry Bennett was whipped and his property burned, is still in Paducah and will remain here until court meets at Marion the fourth Monday in June. He does not require a body guard any more, but is constantly on the alert and will not be taken by a surprise attack from any of his former companions. In crime, who have made threats against him for turning state's evidence. Several suspicious characters from Lyon county were here last week and one called at the hotel, where Hall is stopping and inquired for him, but no more was heard of the man and it was supposed he left the city.

CASH FROM UNION STATION MISSING FROM ENVELOPE

All in a lump $205 is missing from the Union station and the railroad detectives and the city detectives are trying to solve the robbery. Thursday evening the day's receipts, amounting to $205, was sent out to the express messenger by a porter, and after the messenger had caught up with his work while on the run between Cairo and Paducah, the money was missing. Several opportunities were had for some slick thief to get away with the money. The express messenger was busy on his run and frequently was in one end of the car. The detectives are busy on clues and it is said they are working on some startling evidence in Paducah.

Even a cheap young man may cost his parents a lot of money.

JOHN L. VANCE ON HIS ANNUAL TRIP DOWN OHIO RIVER

President of Valley Improvement Association Visits Paducah for Day.

Tells of Work and the Coming Convention.

AT COMMERCIAL CLUB TONIGHT

Colonel John L. Vance, of Columbus, O., the distinguished president of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, arrived in the city this morning and will address the citizens tonight at the Commercial club, Sixth street and Broadway, on the improvements of the Ohio river and what may be expected. While in the city Colonel Vance is the guest of Mr. S. A. Fowler, one of the vice-presidents of the association. This is Colonel Vance's annual trip down the Ohio river from Pittsburgh to Cairo, and after his talk to Paducah tonight will leave tomorrow morning for Cairo on the steamer Dick Fowler.

In speaking of the improvements of the Ohio river, Colonel Vance was enthusiastic this morning and said there is interest such as he had never seen before. At all of the cities down the Ohio river he has met with receptions, and he said that the manufacturers and jobbers were more enthusiastic over the success than the river men. His talk tonight will be along the lines how the money has been spent, and in black and white Colonel Vance will show the business men what has been accomplished, and how the future will be easy.

Work on 15 locks from Pittsburgh down the river is in progress now, with six locks in service, and money enough on hand from the appropriations of congress to carry on the work until the next session, when it is assured that more money will be given. The locks below Pittsburgh are placed at the most advantageous points. This is over one-fourth of the number of locks wanted, as the engineers find but 34 necessary.

Backing the work of the association, Colonel Vance speaks with figures, as Colonel's Lockwood, Ruffner, Sears and Majors Zinn and Shert and Captain Harry Burgess, the recorder, who surveyed the river made a most favorable report. As well did Colonels Adams, Davis, Hoxie, Townsend and Major Winslow, who composed the board of review. Their combined report says that, as large as the $44,000,000 appropriated may be, the Ohio river is the only river in the world that is worth the expenditure.

With the excellent report of the engineers, some of whom are the best engineers in the world, at the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement association in Louisville October 22 and 23, Congressman Shirley has given the association notification that he believes he will have 50 members of congress present. With these members present all doubt is dispelled by Colonel Vance that the improvement will not go through.

Speaking of the tonnage Colonel Vance gives the figures of the Great Lakes on which the tonnage was increased forty fold, and with an average success on the Ohio river the tonnage would far exceed that of the lakes.

As the money has been appropriated by congress for the work and as the next appropriation will be for work on the lower river, from Evansville to Cairo, Colonel Vance's talk will interest especially Paducah. Colonel Vance is a prominent citizen of Columbus, O., and one of the most accomplished speakers in the United States. The Commercial club wants every business man and manufacturer to hear Colonel Vance tonight.

MOTHER

Mrs. Essie Ingram Grows Very Bitter
When Judge Lightfoot Denies Her Request.

Judge Lightfoot received another call yesterday from Mrs. Essie Ingram, who again demanded her child that is being cared for at the Home of the Friendless, and upon his refusal to let the woman have the baby he was called a number of uncomplimentary things by the enraged woman. The child was placed in the Home after it had been abandoned by the mother and was being kept by another woman. It was learned that the baby was not properly cared for and also reported that it was slowly starving to death while several different parties held insurance policies on the life of the little one. Soon after it was taken to the Home of the Friendless the mother brought suit in circuit court for possession of the child, but the case was decided against her. The Ingram woman and her husband are now living together, but it is not believed by the court to be right to allow them possession of the child they once abandoned.

The woman threatened to take the child from the Home of the Friendless yesterday.

An Inconsiderate Tiger.

Several papers in India, according to some of their London contemporaries, print the following, written by a native subordinate in his diary while in a trying position: "I'm a tiger where I adhere with much pain and discomposure while big tigers roar in a very awful manner on the fire line. This is very inconsiderate tiger, and causes me great grief, as I have before reported to your honor. This is two times he spoiled my work, coming and shouting like thunder, and putting me up a tree and making me behave like an insect. It is very awkward fate to me and the tiger is most inconsiderate for possession of the

PATRONS PLEASSED WITH RACING CARD

Hundreds Witness First Matinee Meet of Summer.

Three Interesting Events and Effort to Lower Track Record at Edgewood Grounds.

HOW SPORT WAS CONDUCTED

The winners.
Class C Pace and Trot—Prince S., driven by Tom Settle. Time 1:27.
Class B Pace—Brookhill, driven by A. S. Thompson. Time 2:30.
Class A Trot—Driven by A. S. Thompson. Time 2:20 1/2.

The first matinee races of the season were given yesterday afternoon at Edgewood track by the Matinee Club. About 500 people watched the horses go around the track, and were well pleased with the first races. Pansy Blossom failed to lower the trotting track record by one-half second.

Class C—Mixed trot and pace, one-half mile heats, 2 in 3.
The entries were: Prince S., Tom Settle; Rodney D., Harris; Miss Chimes, J. E. Turner; Black Hess, M. M. Tucker.

In the first heat only Rodney D. and Prince S. behaved and kept together. Both ran well, but Rodney D. gained and passed under a half mile length ahead. Black Hess and Miss Chimes were far back and off their strides.

In the second heat the horses left evenly bunched. At the first clip Prince S. and Rodney D. collided but kept going. At the quarter Prince S. led Rodney D. by two lengths. Black Hess fought it out with Miss Chimes for third place.

In the third heat Black Hess and Miss Chimes were withdrawn. Rodney D. and Prince S. went off together, but Rodney D. broke and gave Prince S. the advantage, and he went under the wire in good time. The heats were finished in 1:26, 1:31 and 1:27.

Class B—Pace, mile heats, 2 in 3.
The entries were: Brookhill, A. Thompson; Toho Scott, George Goodhue; Sam Patch, Tom Settle; Gus R., M. M. Tucker. All started even, but Brookhill and Sam Patch behaved and the others were left behind. After leading, Sam Patch broke and Brookhill passed him and won by two lengths from Toho Scott, also passed Sam Patch.

The second heat was a struggle between Brookhill and Rain-in-the-Face. They went together until the three-quarter mark was passed and Brookhill, just his feet. Rain-in-the-Face went on but jumped soon, and Brookhill came in front by two lengths. The time was 2:38 1/2 and 2:20.

Little Pansy Blossom, the game little lightweight pacer of M. M. Tucker, tried to lower the track record held by Ednor, of 2:12 1/2, but broke and lost a half second. However, Pansy beat the matinee record held by Lelona, which was 2:14 1/2.

Class A—Trot, mile heats, 2 in 3.
The entries were: Billy Buck, A. S. Thompson; Corin, J. E. Turner. In the first heat Billy Buck passed under the wire in 2:23 1/2. He was lame as the result of returning from Memphis, but Corin was also sore, and could not do her best. However, at times the heats warmed up. The second heat went in 2:26 1/2.

Billy Buck went the last quarter in 32.

Wynn Tully was starter and as usual gave entire satisfaction to the audience and the drivers. In two weeks another race will be given and probably during the meeting of the traveling men there will be two days of the sport.

Skiddoo, owned by James Glanher, was auctioned off by Mr. Glanher. The bidding was slow, but Wynn Tully bought the horse for $162.50. Deal's hand furnished excellent music during the intermissions.

WORD ELKS ARE NOW WAITING TO HEAR FROM EMPIRE.

Marion and Paducah Brothers Cross Bats in Friendly Rivalry at League Park Tomorrow.

Practice has been held regularly and all the Elks have been straightened out in the Elks' arms. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Since all of the proceeds after the expenses have been paid, will be donated to some charitable institution, it is probable that a record breaking Sunday crowd will see the game. The diamond is in the best of trim for the game, and the Elks should play as good ball as they are good fellows.

The teams will line up:

Marion—L. G. Brinkley, short stop; Wayne Smith, first base; Fred Stollas, second base; Fred Walker, left field; George Day, third base; H. Graves, center field; R. Colp, pitcher; James Pflam, catcher, and H. T. Hartwell, right field.

POLITICAL FEUD

STARTED AMONG REPUBLICANS IN PHILADELPHIA.

Warrants and Counter-Warrants Coming Fast Against Organization Leaders.

Philadelphia, June 6.—An action which, it is said, presages one of the bitterest political fights that has been witnessed in this city for a long time was taken here by State Senator James P. McNichol in causing warrants to be issued for Max Knifmann, until today secretary to Mayor Reuben, and D. Clarence Gibbons, secretary of the Law and Order society, on criminal charges. The warrants charge in the case of Knifmann perjury, and in that of Gibbons libel.

The issuing of the warrants followed the holding of Senator McNichol, the acknowledged Republican organization leader, earlier in the day on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Knifmann, who sought redress because he was named by McNichol as the go-between who had been paid $10,000 to induce Mr. Gibbons to make raids on disorderly houses and gambling places in 1905 and so discredit the administration of the then Mayor John Weaver.

Hobbers Who Become "Human Trees."

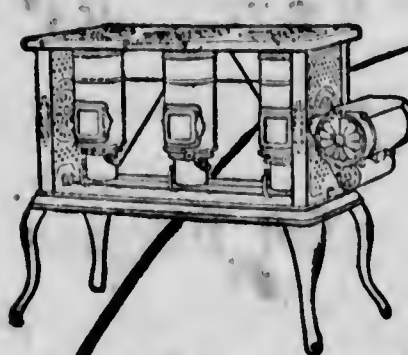

A most ingenious device to escape capture is that shown by the Bush robbers of India. It often happens that a band of these marauders are pursued by mounted men, and, unable to reach the jungle, they themselves about to be overtaken upon one of those open plains which have been cleared by fire, the only shelter in sight being the blackened trunk or leafless branches of small trees that have perished in the flames.

For men so skilled in posturing this is shelter enough. Quickly divesting themselves of their scanty clothing, they scatter it with their plunder, in small piles over the plain, covering them with their round shields, so that they have the appearance of "bumps of earth and attract no attention. This accomplished, they snatch up a few sticks, throw their bodies into contorted position and stand or crouch immovable until their unsuspecting enemies have galloped by. When all is safe they quickly pick up their spoil and proceed upon their way.

A traveler wrote of these marvellous mimics: "Before the English had become used to their maneuvers a very ludicrous incident occurred. An officer with a party of horses was chasing a small body of Bush robbers, and was fast overtaking them. Suddenly the robbers ran behind a rock or some such obstacle, which hid them for a moment, and when the soldiers came up the men had mysteriously disappeared.

"After an unavailing search the officer ordered his men to dismount beside a clump of scorched and withered trees, and the day being very hot, he took off his helmet and hung it on a branch by which he was standing. The branch in question turned out to be the leg of a Bush, who burst into a scream of laughter, and during the astonished officer to the ground. The clump of scorched

Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen

How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire? You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the

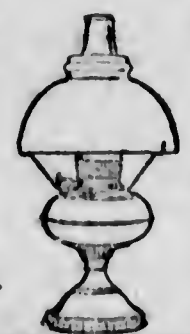

NEW PERFECTION Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Week In Society.

Learn to think, talk and read about the state federation meeting did not come to Paducah club women until today; but now that the meeting is history a survey of the things done in the fourteenth annual meeting with the social features, will be welcome.

Of course, it was a success. In fact it was about the biggest success Paducah has ever known in a social way, and the federation delegates from out-of-town said the meeting exceeded anything else they had seen in the way of hospitable treatment. You see, the "Blue House" has a way had a good opinion of itself and many of the delegates came down to Western Kentucky, to see what kind of people we are, and to investigate our "civilization." Well, they got a shock that has come to every person from the older and more aristocratic section of Kentucky, who has looked on their own as a business life.

First they found a group of women second to none in the state in comparison. Second, they met a warmth of welcome that no colony of the old regime, and his wife, could have dreamed. Third, they found a city that is up to the minute in every way that is possible for a city of this size to attain. These impressions were slightly dampened by the rain on Tuesday evening, but Wednesday they were revived strongly. In the first day's business sessions and social gatherings.

Whether after treatment of guests can be devised, remains for future meetings to reveal. Just consider the arrangements for the meeting. When their train rolled in, they did not have to worry about baggage, porters, cabbies, hotel runners and the myriad other bothers of an arrival in a strange city. Their hands were clasped by a Paducah club woman as they alighted from the cars, their baggage checked and gently taken from them, and consigned to a committee who had their trunks carried to the hotel free of charge. They were escorted happily to waiting private carriages and antonchies, decorated with the club colors, and after a pleasant drive were led to rooms, especially arranged for them, with a rate especially given to them by the Paducah House management.

Lots of difference between that kind of a reception and arrival in a strange city, and one where you get off the train, bewildered as to directions, worried by the rush of carriages, to arrive finally at a hotel, where you are no more than the usual run of patrons. The unusualness of it did not escape the visitors. They thought, "Well, the first impression is distinctly good, but let's see if it lasts."

The Reception.

If there had been any way by which the executive committee could have controlled the weather, they would have tackled it, too, as they did every other conceivable obstacle to an unclouded meeting. But the blubbing sky broke forth into capricious moods just as the visitors and Paducah club women were beginning to make their way to the opening reception Tuesday evening. Some gave up going altogether, and some put on their "second best" dresses. No difference in the details of the reception at the club building, Sixth street and Kentucky avenue, was made by the rain, as all that had been planned in the afternoon. The refreshments and decorations and receiving arrangements were complete and waiting for the brilliant company. Carriages began to arrive at the club building by 8:30 o'clock and as the rain slackened, many renewed their determination to attend. In the face of such discouraging conditions, the opening reception was a great success. Palms, ferns, daisies, lilies, sweet peas, and roses were used in profusion in every part of the building.

Music was furnished by an orchestra and receiving lines were distributed in the hall, auditorium and library. Refreshments were served on the back porch, transformed into a path garden. The reception was for Mrs. Letcher Riker, state president and the visitors.

The receiving line was arranged as follows:

In the hall: Mrs. J. C. Fitterback, chairman house committee; Miss Anna Webb, president of the Magazine club; Mrs. W. A. Gardner, chairman of the finance committee; Mrs. Cook Hushands, of Richmond, Va.

In the auditorium: Mrs. J. A. Rudy, president of the Woman's club; Mrs. Letcher Riker, Harrodsburg, president K. P. of W. C.; Miss Lucella Boyd, Covington, vice-president K. P. of W. C.; Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, Bowling Green, second vice-president K. P. of W. C.; Mrs. C. M. Post, third vice-president K. P. of W. C.; Miss Lillian Lindsey, Frankfort, recording secretary K. P. of W. C.; Miss Haddon, Harrodsburg, corresponding secretary K. P. of W. C.; Miss C. P. Weaver, Louisville, federation secretary; Dean Spencer, Lexington; Mrs. Thirion Ballard, Louisville; Mrs. Desha Breckenridge, Lexington; Mrs. R. A. Roark, Richmond; Mrs. George Avery, Louisville, emergency association; Mrs. Mary G. Palmer, first vice-president W. C.; Mrs. E. G. Boone, treasurer W. C.; Mrs. R. B. Phillips, recording secretary W. C.; Mrs. M. Burnett, chairman entertainment committee.

In the library: Mrs. George C. Wallace, Miss Fannie Rowson, Louisville, chairman traveling library; Miss Lela Breed, Louisville, chairman pure food library; Mrs. B. Holmson, Louisville, president W. C.; Mrs. Patty Sample, Louisville; Mrs. Lavin Riker, Harrodsburg; Mrs. Wallace Bartlett, Lawrenceburg; Mrs. John Dismore, Berea; Miss Carolyn Leach, Louisville; Mrs. Jacob Garrett, Wilmore; Mrs. Mildred Davis, president Delphi club; L. M. Rike, president Alumni association; Mrs. H. S. Wells, president Matinee Musical club.

Those serving punch were: Mrs. I. De Wilcox, Miss Adine Morton, chairman clivies committee; Miss Edith Langstaff, Mrs. Will Webb, Mrs. G. Warnecke, Clarksville, Tenn. Serving in the dining room were: Mrs. Charles Riker, Mrs. George Langstaff, Mrs. James P. Smith, Mrs. George Flournoy, Mrs. Jacob Wallenstein, Mrs. E. H. Bringham, Miss Belle Cave.

At the guest book Mrs. Victor Voits presided.

Care of Visitors.

From the time the visitors stepped off the train Tuesday until they left Friday morning they hardly had a moment to themselves except when sleeping. Arriving late Wednesday morning from the reception of Tuesday evening, they found a committee of local club women at the hotel to show them the way to the club building, and all through the meeting, their hotel stay was lightened by the presence of Paducah women, who saw to their comfort.

At 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning Mrs. Letcher Riker called the first business session to order, and the meeting was in full swing. The Rev. J. R. Henry, pastor of the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church, opened the day's work with prayer, and Mesdames George B. Hart, W. C. Gray, Lela Wade Lewis and Miss Della Coleman, gave a vocal selection. Miss Anna Webb, president of the Magazine club, welcomed the visitors and Miss Lucella Boyd, of Covington, first vice-president of the federation, responded on their behalf.

Mrs. Letcher Riker followed with the president's annual address, in which she telecasted the federation on its past achievements and predicted greater things in the future.

Then before the formal business program was entered into, Mrs. Edmund Post, third vice-president of the federation, secured the floor to move that a telegram be sent to the board of trustees at the state university, in session at Lexington, urging that a woman with university training be appointed dean of women, with full membership in the faculty, and that the department of domestic science be raised to the standard of other state universities. This motion was carried, and Thursday evening before the meeting adjourned, the federation had the pleasure of having their wishes gratified in full, a telegram announcing the good news.

Miss Elizabeth Sinnott made an excellent chairman for the resolutions committee. Her first report on Wednesday morning showed 61 delegates present and before the meeting closed, this had increased to an attendance of 102, of which 8 were state officers and 8 state committee chairmen.

Miss Lillian Lindsey of Frankfort, recording secretary, kept and read the minutes of all the sessions and her unfailing courtesy and attention to duty was responsible for her reelection by an overwhelming majority. In Miss Haddon Hardla of Harrodsburg, the federation has a most capable corresponding secretary. She was the central figure in the two-minute reports from individual clubs on Wednesday afternoon, as well as in the election of officers on Thursday morning. Miss Haddon, too, was complimented by a reelection.

Raising Money.

How to raise money in hard times could easily be explained by Mrs. Thirion Ballard of Louisville, of the educational committee. Last fall and this winter she raised $2,068, for educational purposes by sending 32,215 circular letters in the state, making appeal to individuals for small contributions. The federation appreciated this work so much they gave her a rising vote of thanks. In Miss Haddon's report, it was shown that 17 clubs have joined the federation in the last year, making a total now of 74 clubs with 8,573 members. The treasurer's report by Mrs. H. C. Muir of Nicholasville, showed that the federation handled $1,041 last year, disbursing $1,020, and leaving a balance of $21.

Mrs. Riker appointed as a resolutions committee, Mrs. Helen of Danville, Mrs. Frank Lowry of Paris, and Mrs. Robinson of Louisville. This committee reported Thursday evening at the Casino meeting, expressing in detail the appreciation of the visitors for the varied courtesies and entertainments furnished. As a committee to consider the amendment to the constitution, Mrs. Riker appointed Mrs. Avery of Louisville, Miss Clay of Lexington and Miss Boyd of Covington. Their report fixed the charge against clubs with 20 members or less, for federation purposes, at $3 a year and for clubs with more than 20 members, per capita, per capita. Philanthropic clubs, which usually have a large membership, will be admitted on the basis of the small clubs. The amendment was adopted.

Local Women's Work.

Mrs. A. R. Meyers and Mrs. Harry Meyers were hostesses of the club building on Wednesday, their duties being to receive the visitors, introduce them and see after their needs. For the remainder of the meeting, hostesses were as follows: Mrs. Arch Sutherland and Mrs. R. G. Resnolds; Thursday afternoon, Mrs. I. O. Walker and Mrs. F. M. Fisher; Friday morning, Mrs. Frank Scott and Mrs. Helen Lowry.

Mrs. Edwin Rivers, chairman of the mail and information committee, assisted by the members of her committee, distributed the mail among the delegates and gave them any information. Paducah stationers donated 100 post cards with Paducah views, to this committee who gave them to the visitors.

Kindergarten work was illustrated by an exhibit at the meeting under the supervision of Mrs. Harry Whiteside of Louisville, who also addressed the meeting on Thursday afternoon. Thursday morning the teachers of the city assembled in the club building to hear Mrs. Whiteside. The exhibit was a four room house furnished, made entirely from waste material and by Louisville children.

The Luncheon.

Adjourning from Wednesday morning's business session, the delegates and club members in the city, repaired to the second floor where a luncheon was served by the Delphi, Magazine and Kalosopie clubs. Mrs. George Langstaff designed the decorations, which carried out an Indian theme. A tape of daisies, a picture of Paducah and the pipe of peace were cleverly executed. Branches of Kentucky native trees, the sassafras, gum, oak, maple and persimmon were used around the walls. Haddon decorated the room. Mrs. Langstaff gave this toast: Paducah, chief of his hand. From out the happy hunting land: To you, palefaces, gathered here. To taste of our combined cheer. A hearty welcome gives, He offers you the pipe of peace. And hopes your efforts will increase The interest in our nation; And as the months and years go by, Not only we but the state will cry, "God bless the Federation."

The menu for the luncheon was: Chicken and brain patties, with cream sauce; tomatoes with mayonnaise and lettuce; sandwiches, olives and food tea. The desert was leeks and cakes.

It was evident at the morning session that the club auditorium was not large enough for the attendance, so the rest of the sessions were held in the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church. This courtesy by that congregation and pastor was highly appreciated. Dr. J. R. Henry further increased his popularity with the federation by a short speech of congratulation he made Thursday morning, on the character of the work they were doing.

Two Minute Reports.

Mr. E. N. Clapper of Cincinnati, a member of the National Child Labor committee, addressed the federation Wednesday afternoon. Child labor is one of the hot subjects of the federation and his advice that the federation "stand pat" on the present Kentucky law, which some persons are trying to discredit, fell on willing ears. For three hours after Mr. Clapper's address the federation listened to two-minute reports from individual clubs, as follows:

Bowling Green: Current Events club and Current Topics club, of Bowling Green; Woman's club, Clinton; four clubs of Covington; Woman's History club, Franklin; Fortnightly club and Woman's Magazine club, Fulton; College Street club, Harrodsburg; Mercer County Teachers club, Harrodsburg; Pictorial club, Lawrenceburg; Woman's club, Lexington; Consumer League Alumni association, Literature club, Mondy afternoon club, Free Kindergarten association, Tourist club, Woman's club, Emergency association, Louisville; Woman's Book club, Madisonville; Woman's club, Mayfield; Acme club, Nicholasville; Married Ladies' Reading club, Woman's club, Owensboro; Alumni association, Delphi; Magazine, Kalosopie, Matinee Musical and Woman's clubs, Paducah; Literary club, Paris; Progressive Culture club, Paris; Woman's club, Paris; Twentieth Century club, Smithland; Woman's club and Library association, Wickliffe.

Wednesday Evening.

Early supper was eaten by the delegates and club members of Paducah Wednesday evening, to go on the river trip at 7 o'clock, of which Mrs. Edmund Post, Mrs. Mildred Davis and Miss Mattie Fowler were hostesses. Over 100 guests spent an hour on the Tennessee and Ohio rivers on the line steamer Dick Fowler. An orchestra was aboard, and refreshments of ices and cakes were served to the guests in every part of the steamer. The federation colors floated on the flagstaff of the Dick Fowler. Though the trip lasted but an hour, the visitors pronounced it one of the pleasantest entertainments of the meeting.

Returning at 8:10 o'clock from the river trip, the delegates and local club women dressed for the recital by the Matinee Musical club at the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church at 9 o'clock. The program:

Phono duet—"Country Dance" (Nevin)—Misses Reed and O'Brien. Vocal solo—"Spring Song" (Coenen)—Miss Anne Bradshaw. Vocal solo—Page's song from "Les Huguenots"—Mrs. James Wellie. Vocal solo—"Third Ballade" (Chopin)—Mrs. Geo. B. Hart. Vocal solo—Aria from "Hérodiade" (Massenet)—Mrs. Lela Wade Lewis.

Duet—"Crimson Glow of Sunset Fades" (Root)—Misses Bradshaw and Dreyfuss. Vocal solo—Selected—Mr. Richard Scott.

Vocal solo—"Nymphs and Fawns"—Miss Mamie Dreyfuss.

Violin solo—"Hungarian Dance" (Brahms)—Prof. William Deal.

Wednesday's strenuous program was concluded by a reception at the Woman's club building, after the musical. It began at 10 o'clock and continued until nearly midnight. The Matinee Musical was the hostess and the visitors and local club women who could not attend Tuesday evening's reception were out in full force. The officers of the Matinee Musical club were in the receiving line, with the presidents of the federated clubs in this city, and the federation officers. The active members of the club helped to entertain downstairs, while the associate members received upstairs. The decorations were cut flowers and potted plants. Punch was served on the back porch by Miss Aline Bagby, Myne Dreyfuss, Anne Bradshaw, Lela Reed and Mary Scott. The club colors, violet and gold prevailed in the designs of the ices and cakes.

Interest in Thursday morning's session centered in the election of officers for the federation, to serve until June 1909, as follows:

President—Mrs. Letcher Riker, Harrodsburg. First vice-president—Miss Lucella Boyd, Covington. Second vice-president—Mrs. James A. Mitchell, Bowling Green. Third vice-president—Mrs. James A. Rudy, Paducah. Fourth vice-president—Mrs. Ida Withers Harrison, Lexington. Recording secretary—Miss Lillian Lindsey, Frankfort. Corresponding secretary—Miss Hal-

BIRDS' NEST FIRE CAUSES FIREMEN HIGH POLE CLIMB

One of the most peculiar fires that was ever reported to the fire department, came this morning at 8 o'clock when one of the East Tennessee Telephone company's poles at Fourth and Harrison streets caught fire. The pole is 35 feet high and the alarm was given at the Central fire station. Captain Joe Collins and W. J. McPherson, city electrical inspector, went to the pole and climbed up to the top and extinguished the blaze.

On the pole were guy wires and the pole has burned near the top so that the wires fell over and allowed a secondary wire carrying a voltage of 110 volts to burn a messenger wire in two and loosen several cables. Captain Collins and Mr. McPherson carried a Johnson pump with them, and threw water on the fire, but later climbed to the fire and by vigorously pumping water the blaze was out in five minutes. The blaze probably started in the night, as the pole was well burned and the embers were blowing across the street when discovered. It is the opinion that some birds had a nest in the top of the pole, and a spark set it on fire. The damage will amount to only a few dollars. The department has fought fires in almost every place, but this is the first one on a telephone pole.

BAD CHECK MAN

Another bad check man has been working in Paducah so far only $25 have been secured. The stranger entered B. Weller's store and F. Newman's store, where each cashed a check for $10, and Ernest Luckey at Gullig's cashed a check for $5. The man's story was that he had sold a hog to Milo Hector, a butcher on market, and after purchasing goods offered the check in payment, which was drawn on the City National bank. When cashing the check, the stranger was dressed in overalls, and looked like a farmer. The police have been notified, but have been unable to catch the slick citizen.

Market Master Charles Bell has been on a quiet hunt for an unknown white boy for two mornings, but the lad is sick and enfeebled. For the past three mornings the boy has appeared on market and sold poultry food, axle grease and other articles at give-away prices. It is the opinion that the boy has stolen the articles at some place and brought them here to sell. His bargain prices on a poultry food, that never retails lower than 25 cents, a package, is 5 cents. If he is caught he will be held on an investigation and to answer questions.

The boy's father sat upon the platform and stated that his son has invitations to speak sufficient to fill every night for a year. Good Advice depend, of course, very largely upon her health. If your health is bad, if you are weak, sick, miserable, and suffer from pain or other symptoms of womanly ailments, your face and general appearance will quickly show it, and nothing you can do will bring back your good looks, until you cure your female troubles.

The best advice to give you, for such a condition, is to "take Cardui."

This is the well-known woman's remedy, of which you have so often heard.

It is the medicine for you to try, whether you have just fallen sick or whether you have been long sick, and are hopeless of relief.

Cardui has succeeded so often, that you may safely expect it to benefit you.

Mrs. Sarah Avery, of Moark, Ark., writes: "I suffered with womanly troubles for two years, and nothing would help me until I took Cardui. Now I am well." Try it.

RHEUMATISM

BODY RACKED WITH PAIN

No other disease causes such wide-spread suffering as Rheumatism. It is a nerve-racking torture, and so thoroughly does it dominate the system, when it becomes entrenched in the blood, that its victims are usually complete slaves to pain. Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood brought on by stomach troubles, weak kidneys, indigestion, and a sluggish condition of the system. The natural refuse of the body, instead of passing off through the ordinary channels of waste, is left to sour and ferment in the system because of these irregularities, forming uric acid which is absorbed into the blood, and Rheumatism gets a foothold. As the blood circulates through the body it deposits the acid, irritating substances with which it is saturated, into the different muscles, nerves, vessels and bones. Sharp, biting pains commence, the flesh becomes feverish, swollen and tender, the muscles and joints throb and jerk, and the body is literally racked with pain. Plasters, blisters, liniments, etc., can never cure the disease; they relieve the pain, perhaps, temporarily, but do not reach the trouble, which is in the blood. S. S. S. is the proper treatment for Rheumatism. It goes down and attacks the disease at its head, and by driving out the poison and acid fluids which are causing the pain, and strengthening and enriching the blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

GERMAN VIEW OF THE SITUATION IN MACEDONIA

New York, June 6.—Baron Speck von Sternberg, the German ambassador to the United States, has an article in the forthcoming Outlook giving an official German view of the Macedonian situation. The ambassador speaks with full personal as well as official information, as he was Germany's agent at Belgrade for some time and made a study there and in Macedonia of existing conditions. He says in part:

From a general point of view, Germany holds the opinion that the maintenance of the status quo is in the interest of all the powers. Germany agrees with the whole civilized world that the unbearable state of affairs in Macedonia urgently calls for a remedy and steps must be taken to put a stop to the continuous bloodshed, murder and outrages there.

But Germany is convinced that all measures bearing upon this subject will only have a possibility of success if they receive the firm support of all the powers, acting in absolute harmony with each other.

Germany is ready to consider seriously and favorably any suitable proposal, from whatever side it may come, by which the present state of affairs in Macedonia can be remedied, and is prepared to give her full consent thereto, provided that it meets with the consent of the other powers.

The Remedy.
The question, what measures are the most suitable? is a matter of discussion. At the first glance it seems doubtful to the German government if larger or smaller increase of the police force would give the desired result, but she is far from rejecting this idea as altogether unfeasible.

Germany regards with some skepticism, however, the idea of placing the command of the Turkish troops in the hands of Christian officers, even if this is done by allowing European officers to direct the movements of the troops without their being actually in command of such troops when actually operating.

In any case it holds the opinion that the task of elaborating practical measures destined to change, or at least to ameliorate, the state of affairs in Macedonia and its deplorable features should best be confided to the representatives of the powers at Constantinople.

As far as the judicial reform is concerned, the German government considers the realization of such as not only useful, but as absolutely necessary. It does not regard it as the most appropriate measure for quieting the Balkan states, and also doubts that the scheme for a reform of the Turkish judicial system in its present form is appropriate in all points. But whether this scheme be considered as perfect in all details or whether it is defective and offers difficulties of execution, the German government is ready, in order not to trouble the concert of the powers, to give its consent to the project as it now stands, if all the powers do likewise.

Hashimura Togo, the inflexible Japanese schoolboy whose letters appear in Collier's, gives some interesting experiences this week in telling of his struggles with the servant problem.

In part he says:
"I have you got some good references of recommendation to show you could hold situation of Servant Problem elsewhere?" he says it.

"Of sure I have! I degrade, so I took from my inward vest following recommendation of my intelligence which I wrote myself:

—Mrs. C. W. O'Brien, honorable lady, where I do table wait & terrible order from fresh American gentleman who say "lap boy" with voice so I am very sorry when hot soup drown him at collar & I am next irritate to race-out with Whang So, China boy of dog's face & terminate there by hanging by the tail of his head to hon. doorknob. Good-bye, Mrs. C. W. O'Brien! There there was 3 week.

—Hon. Miss Matzie Jones, young lady of considerable antiquity & large average weight, promise pay me 10c hr teach her bicycle ride. I teach her gently by up-hill; but by down-hill teaching become deliciously rapid because of nervousness, enjoyed by hon. machinery. Time there was 1/2 hr & no pay.

—Golden West Garage where I am manure for automobiles. "Are you acquainted to do?" say Hon. Ross. "O gladly!" I heretofore. I try, but Hon. Gasoline object by explosion. I do not care for this place. Time there was 6 minute.

—I am nurse-maiden for delightful home of Duchess WELKINS, Sanacito. I am request to perambulate Hon. Godfrey, which is a baby, out near some fresh air which he enjoy breathing it. There I meet H. Wanda, Japanese socialist, who discourse with me about Private Ownership. While this important talk is doing Hon. Baby get himself detached from luggs-ride by one method or another. I am conversing too much to notice this until Hon. Mrs. Williams approach to say with hysterical, "Where is their baby?" I should like to answer. By search for it I discover Hon. Baby aslumbering amongst potato bush by road. She do not thank me at departure. Time there was 3 days.—Collier's, May 30, 1908.

To Know an Artist.

The Munich Jugend has discovered five new signs by which to detect the school to which a painter belongs. (1) If he paints the sky gray and the grass black, he belongs to the good old classical school; (2) If he paints the sky blue and the grass green, he is a realist; (3) If he paints the sky green and the grass blue, he is an impressionist; (4) If he paints the sky yellow and the grass purple, he is a colorist; (5) If he paints the sky black and the grass red, he shows possession of great decorative talent.—Literary Digest.

MAE O'REILLY ALIVE

NOW GUEST OF FRIENDS IN SARATOGA.

She is the Woman Julius Truelson Claimed Was Murdered on the Guinness Farm.

Saratoga, N. Y., June 6.—Mae O'Reilly, who Julius G. Truelson, Jr., declared in a "confession" to the Texas authorities, was murdered on the Guinness farm at Laporte, Ind., is in this village alive and well. She arrived Friday last from New York City and is the guest of friends here.

Miss O'Reilly at first denied her identity, but later admitted it. According to the story told by Daniel F. Welch, a member of the family with whom she is stopping, she has been employed in New York City the past winter.

"Miss O'Reilly has had no correspondence with Truelson," Welch declared, "since the time when he was sent to Elmhurst. After her marriage with him in 1905 she went to work and has heard nothing of him since."

The Sandjak Railway.

As to the question of the Sandjak railway, there is no doubt that Austria-Hungary is entitled by the treaty of Berlin to carry out that project, and that the powers recognize her right to do so nor does Germany consider this purely economical project to be inconsistent with either the wording or the meaning of the purely political entente between Russia and Austria-Hungary.

The boundary controversy between Turkey and Persia endangers no German interests. Germany has, consequently, not the slightest reason to take any part in it. She has, however, thought it advisable, for the sake of common interest, repeatedly to recommend in a friendly but urgent way to the Porte a peaceful settlement of the controversy and to suggest that Turkey should take the first step thereto by withdrawing her troops.

It need scarcely be mentioned that the frequent statements by the foreign press asserting that Germany is supporting Turkish armaments and encouraging the warlike spirit in Turkey—which, in fact, according to all information, is in no way discernible—are an absurd invention.

The Salvation Army has a factory in Europe where musical instruments are made for its members.

W. H. TUCKER, OF NEAR FARM-

Walter and R. B. Colley Are Defend-

Mayfield, Ky., June 6.—Claiming shotgun and his team, which he was plowing, taken from him, W. H.

Tucker retaliates by bringing suit against Walter Colley and R. B. Colsaulted him. The parties mentioned live south of Farmington and are

The suit was filed in circuit court by Attorneys Speight & Denn, representing the plaintiff. The petition reads as follows:

TOBACCO NEWS

Tobacco Crop to Be Short.

Frankfort, Ky., June 6.—From reports received from nearly all the counties which compose what is known as the Barley tobacco district, the commissioner of agriculture, M.
C. Rankins, estimates that the crop of tobacco which will be raised this year all over Kentucky will be not more than 5,000,000 pounds, and the greater part of this will be grown in counties which are outside the barley tobacco proper. The estimates are that about 1 per cent of the usual crop in the barley district will be planted this year, but in some other counties of Kentucky barley tobacco is grown in small quantities, and this will run up the total. The total average will be, according to the commissioner's information, about 5,000,000 pounds, although it is believed that this will be too high. The total average last year was about 135,000 acres. As the total will average, in a good year, about 1,000 pounds to the acre, it is estimated that with 5,000,000 pounds planted and a good year for tobacco, as the present season promises, the total crop in Kentucky will be about 5,000,000 pounds.

This amount is such a small percentage of the usual crop that even if 5,000,000 pounds is raised it would only be a drop in the bucket. The 1907 crop was 137,000,000 pounds, estimated, and as compared with this small amount which will be grown this year, seems to be almost none at all. The 5,000,000 pounds, if that much actually gets on the market, would be eaten up so quickly that it would have no effect on the price and would be trivial, as the American Tobacco company would make short work of the small crop.

In some counties which are not in the barley district proper there is tobacco grown this year, and many farmers in Carter, Lewis and even in Hurt county, have put out tobacco.
But many men who now have bolls will not plant, through the influence of various things which tend to prevent them from going into the tobacco raising business. The agriculture department here says that the 1908 crop is practically cut out, and the amount to be raised is negligible.
The barley people are pleased with this, and say that there is no longer any doubt about the success of their plan to put the price of tobacco up.

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Louisville, June 6.—Dark warehouse sold 20 hogheads at $7 to $11.75.

500 Hogheads Sold at Murray.

Murray, Ky., June 6.—Since our last report Salesman Hood has disposed of 500 hogheads of association tobacco. Prices for leaf ranged from $10 to $13, and lugs $7 to $8.
The total sales for the year at this market now reaches 1,450 hogheads, which is largely in excess of the sales at this time last year.

"What did that hunter from the city ask you?"

"He asked me if I had seen a rabbit. Certainly, says I. I have seen more than a hundred in my lifetime. Which one do you mean?"

VIOLENT PROTEST

AGAINST KING EDWARD'S PRO-POSED RUSSIAN VISIT.

Socialists and Labor Members Offer a Motion of Condemnation in Commons.

London, June 6.—Violent protests were made by the Socialists and labor members in the house of commons against King Edward's approaching visit to Russia, in language the offensiveness of which no attempt was made to veil. The speakers drew bitter pictures of the alleged conditions of the Muscovite empire, declaring that while they had no objection to King Edward privately visiting his relative, Emperor Nicholas, they had the greatest abhorrence of the idea of a state visit to Russia, "with its horrors, tortures and persecutions."

"Fraternalizing with the hangmen of liberty in Russia," they declared to be a shame and a disgrace to Great Britain, which "could not avoid condemnation, if she mixed in evil companys."

The labor-socialists suggested that the visit had been engineered by Russia with the view of rehabilitating her credit, and John G. S. Mac-Neill, Nationalist, joined in the protest.

Foreign Secretary Sir Edward
Grey on behalf of the government, depreciated the tone and temper of this attack. He declared the evidence proved clearly that the system of government in Russia had markedly improved during the last two years and said an attempt to exert pressure as suggested would hinder this constitutional progress instead of helping it. He then invited the house to consider what kind of resentment would have been aroused in Great Britain had the emperor of Russia declined to visit this country until full self-government had been granted the Transvaal. The government had advised the king to pay this visit, which according to the information, would be welcomed by all the moderate and liberal elements of Russia.

Sir Edward then reported that no suggestions were on foot for a new treaty or convention with Russia and he said none would be initiated during the visit. It was hoped, however, that the visit would have the political effect of improving the relations between the two countries.

The labor-socialist motion condemning the visit to Russia was defeated 225 votes to 59.

Found the Key.

Miss Drosswell had just returned after spending a week with a country friend. Imagine her consternation when she discovered her previously well-stocked wardrobe empty.
"Where, where?" she said to her brother. "Where are all my clothes? And what in the world is that great black patch on the lawn?"
The face of George exhibited all the well-known signs of conscious guiltiness and he met her gaze thickly.

"Maria," he replied, consolingly, you wrote to me that if I wanted the key of the billiard room I should find it in the pocket of your holers."

"Yes, yes."

"Well, I don't know a holers from dehn or a lux plant, so I took all be things to the lawn and burned them. Then I recovered the key from a ash."

She froze him with a stare, and he now thawing slowly in the kitchen
